

History Rock

Date

Mon, 12/14/2020 - 13:10

Activity

Skiing

Toured History Rock today and skied the upper and middle meadows. Saw around 6 inches of storm snow sitting on top of faceted grains. The upper meadow snowpack varied from 30-50 cm with the deeper snow being closer to the bottom. It was all unconsolidated snow and did not observe any instabilities. Pretty good skiing!

Region

Northern Gallatin

Observer Name

Nick Roe