

Langhor Drainage

Date

Sun, 01/31/2021 - 10:30

Activity

Snowboarding

SW aspect at 6800'

Air temp -1c

CT16NP

ECT21NP

PST6

23" snowpack

The same two layers, wind/sun or rain crust with a surface hoar layer and 8-10" of depth hoar/facets at this location. We did not see cracking, collapsing or whoomphing. Traveled up the ridge of the south aspect of the sunshine mine drainage.

Approximately at 45 31'58"N 11101'45"W

Region

Northern Gallatin

Location (from list)

Hyalite - main fork

Observer Name

Ron Richison